PART-B

Q.6 What is a précis. Give rules to write down a good précis. (20)

Q.7 Read the following passage and answer the questions given at the end.

The first thing which a scholar should bear in mind is that a book ought not to be read for mere amusement. Some of the educated persons read for amusement, and that belong to a really great literature. But a young man who has passed through a course of University training should discipline himself at an early day never to read for mere amusement. And once the habit of the discipline has been formed he will find it impossible to read for amusement. He will then impatiently throw down a book which does not make an appeal to obtain intellectual food, any book which does not make an appeal to the higher emotion and to his intellect. But on the other hand the habit of reading for amusement becomes with thousands of people exactly the same kind of habit as wine drinking or opium smoking.

QUESTIONS:

1. What is the first thing which a scholar should bear in mind. (3)
2. Why should some educated persons not be blamed for reading books for mere amusement. (3)
3. What attitude towards reading a young man is likely to develop after passing through a course of University training. (3)
4. Make a précis with a suitable title. (11)
